

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, White Eagle has devoted his life to the betterment of the Indian community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, White Eagle is an enrolled member of the Rosebud Sioux Tribe; and,

WHEREAS, White Eagle studied at the University of California Los Angeles and at the University of Denver; and,

WHEREAS, White Eagle sang with the San Francisco Opera and the Milwaukee Skylight Comic Opera, and will sing with the Philadelphia Metropolitan Opera and the New York Philharmonic Opera; and,

WHEREAS, White Eagle is the son of Reverend Marrles and Frances Moore, pastors of the Christian Life Fellowship Church; and,

WHEREAS, White Eagle will be honored with a reception at the Mission-St. Thomas Parish Hall by his friends and tribe members; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this talented and outstanding South Dakotan;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 5, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join in wishing White Eagle a very successful and fulfilling career.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine
